1. Introduction

Money is one of the aspects that is changing rapidly on planet Earth. A condition that makes insecure raises many questions and often causes anxiety. Something that does not have to be, money just starts to move outside of the usual norms and ways of thinking. By the way, other things do this progressively as well.

Money is currently an extremely important component of everyday life. Therefore, we think, it makes sense to deal with it in more detail with the new modes of action.

“We” are in this book:

Tom-Lin-Son. A collective energy of the Pleiades. The Pleiades are a collection of different planets and different cultures.

We have been through similar challenges and have now come to this planet to share our experiences and perspectives, and to have them, in practical terms and energy-based, interwoven into this book.

Lady Nayla Og-Min. Ascended Master. Part of the White Brotherhood and World Teacher. I carry a great love for humans and the planet Earth in me and am now (again) here to teach and to support very practical in this changing and therefore challenging period.

Susanne Edelmann.

Current incarnation of Lady Nayla and in addition, embodied master of her own. In this incarnation, I have completed a variety of training in counseling and adult education. I have been advising and teaching people with great pleasure for decades. Also as a master.

Lord Kuthumi. Ascended Master, too and part of the White Brotherhood.

It is my special pleasure to serve you with my energies my knowledge and my abilities.

Adamus St. Germain. Ascended Master and World Teacher. Currently mainly teachers of people who are on the path of self-empowerment and awareness.

With our current books, we give you mainly support in different ways. Finally, it is on you to make your very own way.

Lady Rowena. Ascended Master and part of the White Brotherhood. Teacher and master.

My love, my wisdom, my knowledge and my abilities are, with great love, contained in this book.

Adam. A stellar collective energy and world teacher who has been here for some time in the space of the earth.

We have recognized a lot through our observation and we would like to pass on these observations to you and support you on this way.

This book is NOT a channeled book. As Susanne is the incarnation of an already Ascended Master, fully aware and in addition embodied master as well, she has the ability (as all energy-based living being have, by the way) to merge energy-based. This means, that we all together merge into one collective-energy. We define as one the book and Susanne writes it materiel based into human words. While she is writing, we are still connected and thus, our energies interweaves into the written words as well. This gives your divine self the opportunity to get far more information and thus support, that the written words can do.

People are used to the fact that their life revolves around the aspect of money: money defines your status, your possibilities, your place of residence, sometimes also your love-relationship and your professional activity. Money determines if - and if so, where - you go on holiday. It defines which car you drive, how you dress and what you eat. Money is currently one of the most important factors of your life. At the same time, you take it at best already true: money does change.

Often, money gets less for a variety of reasons, and if you are mindful of it, you will find that you still have everything you need right now. It is therefore no longer necessary for you to need a certain amount defined in your head in order to have enough available. Yes, honestly, you need it decreasingly. This is the first shift of norms that we will devote, among other things, to this book. Money is beginning to move increasingly based on energy and energy-based is definitely not material based. This also explains that you sometimes work hard and yet, the number on your account reduces at the same time. On the other hand, you might think that you are currently earning little money but at the same time, you are developing more and more of a sense of fullness in you, and excitingly, the amount of money in your account is growing. Money starts to move based on energy. Also in your life.

Energy based follows other rules than material based and if you want to grasp how this does work, it is necessary to know and grasp the energy-based laws. To be able to use and apply them afterwards.

Although money is changing, it will probably still be an important aspect of your life in the years to come. Reason enough, therefore, that you, very personally, deal with the topic of money in a very practical new way and allowing you to live in financial abundance with immediate effect.

Financial abundance is one of the basic requirements to be effective. If you find yourself in a financial shortage, this aspect will continue to slow you down in your development and thus, in your fundamental expansion. Therefore, the intensive, individual examination of the subject, and thus the creation of financial wealth, are important basic themes in the present time.

This book wants to introduce you to the energy-based mode of action of money. With the aim that this introduction will help you to grasp the new and different effects through your very practical experiences. At the same time, however, it also wants to build a bridge between the material-based and the energy-based regularities and invite you to find your very own, beneficial and successful way of dealing with the issue of money in the new era in this context.

May it serve you, this book!

With all our love

2. Money is energy

So far, the earth has been the habitat of matter, limitation and linear time. It was a place where most people lived and acted within these laws (the laws of the third dimension). Money has been (and still is) usually lived and experienced within these very specific circumstances: matter, limitation, past, present and future. This has made many experiences possible: money could be acquired (usually by means of bartering), one could possess it, give it away, have too little or too much, hold it tangible as matter in the hands, but also lose it again at any time. When money is limited, sometimes it is not enough. You have to save it so that you have enough in the future. Sometimes, people who have enough cash reserves to donate to those who have too little. Out of solidarity or charity.

So many wonderful experiences, seen from outside this planet. Experiences that are possible only within a frame of thought of limitation and within a frame of thought of linear time (within which the experience of "transience" is possible). Outside of this very particular frame of thought, this is simply not.

If you want to get to know money in a new way, this requires, on the one hand, the active engagement with the topic "frame of thought and its effects", but on the other hand, your willingness to be with your own frame of thinking and, if necessary, to open it.

If you like, we invite you here and now to deal actively with the following questions, to write down the relevant answers for you and thus, have the disposal of the later chapters:

- How does money come to you right now and why do you have any money at all?
- How would you describe your current relationship with money?
- How much money do you have right now? Little? Just enough? A lot of?
- If you have little money, what is the real reason? A low number on your account or the fact that you give yourself little money?

If you deal with the topic "money" and emerge holistically from the frame of thinking of the third dimension, you first encounter the fact that outside the third dimension there is no limit. All is. Limitless. A fact that first baffles you and subsequently unsettles you. If there are no limits, you lose your usual collateral. Good and evil mix and suddenly there is no telling what is right and what is wrong. Your previously lived norms and beliefs are starting to dissipate and at the same time, your mind cannot even begin to gauge how these changes should be valued. Boundless freedom is a broad concept. Yet, this within a society still largely arrested and functioning in the third dimension? Thus, you experience yourself first, confronted with a mixture of an initial ludicrous capture, fascination, but also worry and confusion. Therefore, you need a stable inner security, so that you can now get involved systematically in the new. You need an inner security so that you do not step back frightened and barricade yourself in the old and familiar. A security that holds you and carries you. The one you trust and rely on, especially when you cannot make out any intimate security on the outside. This security, the only actual security, is in yourself. It is this, your inner essence. Your divine, timeless self. Your inner essence, so to speak. Your "I Am". You do not need to look outside. It is already you. Part of your current self. You connect to it basically, even if you are not consciously looking for it. The connection is. It holds and carries. Even if you are not aware of it. Therefore, it seems useless, if you now impose in all sorts of worries and fears. It rather requires your conscious trust.

Trusting yourself. A topic that many people find difficult to do. It is easy for them to trust everything. On the other hand, they hesitate with themselves. A fatal story. Viewed from the outside. If only the person whom you trust most of all should be yourself. Actually.

If you manage money as energy, this requires that you know the laws of energy on the one hand, but you are also able to work with energy consciously and - as if consciously - to guide them successfully to the highest and the best. Energy guides over conscious, clear and pure intention.

For example, you need 12'000 Fr. for a specific project and now you clearly allow that you have this 12'000 Fr. at your disposal. This reads very simply now, is located outside of the material-based frame of thinking and therefore appears to the human mind simply surreal. It has never seen the subject matter of money like this before and so it simply does not seem possible to it within its previous reference values that such a procedure could actually work. Completely understandable. From the perspective of the human mind.

However, this does not mean that energy-based reality does not exist and, of course, does work. It therefore requires your conscious involvement in something entirely new, outside of your usual habits. In addition, it requires that you learn to consciously direct energy. Unconsciously, you have been doing this for a long time, but this reality is still outside of your current perceptual framework.

Yet, if you decide to do so now, it will be able to show you the next few days continuously, thus making your human mind conscious again.

Energy is freely accessible at all times. Thus, if you look at money from an energy-based perspective, money is always freely available. Something that seems impossible to the human mind and fascinates it at the same time. However, the energy-based "money" option does not work beyond the human mind and it will only frustrate you and confirm your mind that something like this is not possible when you try it.

Energy-based life works through your divine self, your consciousness, your inner essence. It is your divine self that increasingly takes the lead and that now more and more cares for you by manifesting effortlessly out of your heart. Always exactly what you need right now, in abundance. If you take a moment and feel in this very one moment, you will find that you have in abundance what you need here and now. This is one of the main keys of the energy-based effect of money and at the same time, one of the human sticking points. Because, your human mind is constantly trying to generate collateral forwards and thus, keeps you constantly in motion, as long as you do not consciously stop it. Energy-based life is clearly not material based life. It knows no shortage. Because everything is contained in the here and now. It knows that everything I encounter serves me to my highest. This encloses situations in which there is complete emptiness, as well. Energy-based life knows and dominates the energy-based laws and thus, has all the necessary keys to create oneself in the deep soothing life in holistic abundance. Regardless of circumstances or people in the outside.

Energy-based life knows about its own creative power and uses it in freedom and joy.

Energy-based life wants to be observed researched and grasped. Yet, once you have grasped it, you become the actual, sole creator of your life.

However, if you decide to open up for the energy-based reality, the beginning is mostly not only an easy. Instead, you will face fears, worries, and many arguments, as soon as you allow yourself to think in the direction of energy-based life. Energy-based works big and bright and this trigger in most people, as a rule, once fear. People often have big and beautiful dreams. Yet, if these dreams come true, they often fear their brightness. A big and wonderful house brings further (big) costs with it (according to the arguments of your mind.). A big and wonderful job brings (big) responsibility with it. If a beautiful and big dream begins realizing actually, the human spirit involuntarily intervenes. It argues and sows fear and worries. A pattern that makes you involuntarily recoil. You lose your courage, give up your beautiful dream or make it small and fitting. Somehow, you want your big dream come true, but on the other hand, you are frightened of its beauty.

Many people are afraid of their actual, honest and deep dreams. They are afraid of them being realized in their fullness. They are afraid of any envy of others when they actually live in a large and beautiful house. At best, even satisfied, all alone. They are afraid of making mistakes or even failing when they actually work in a managerial position. They are afraid of losing and have fear of being declared incapable. Yet, all the many fears and anxieties make their dreams small and fitting, even if its realization then their heart does not really enjoy. Yet the adapted dreams seem appropriate and realistic.

Most people are dissatisfied in depth. They live a limited life that does not really suit them and does not really make them happy. They honestly live this life for fear of size and abundance. They admit to a mediocre life, adapted to their current environment and do calm their unhappy heart with all sorts of explanations and distractions. There may be many good reasons for this form of life. At the same time, however, this basic attitude also prevents an actually living and fulfilling life and closes off sustainably, considering energy-based. Thus prevents money or other, good things of reaching this person.

People who start to deal with energy-based reality often take many months, sometimes years, to understand actually the different mode of action. At the same time, they also need an honest and detailed examination of themselves, their restrictive thoughts and their sometimes very unfortunate behavior. As long as a person closes energetically, there cannot flow to him. Yet, not Money as well.

Until energy can actually serve you for your highest and best, especially in the realm of the material, it usually requires a longer inner path. If you like, we invite you to go consciously for it and to let yourself in on all the issues, worries and fears that are in you before the realization of your actual deep heartfelt wishes.

Every time you think, "little is nice too", you brace yourself out, based on energy.

Each time you think out "Plan B" internally, or even out of it, you effectively torpedo your effective target.

Energy based requires pure clarity and this usually only arises after extensive discussion in and with yourself. You do not have to know in advance how to pay the maintenance costs of the new - big - house. The money you need will be sufficient available, if the house is actually in front of you and you know this is your next home. Energy based does not work in advance. There is always that in abundance, what you need in the here and now. You simply cannot (anymore) plan, control, or create by actively doing, if you are on the energy-based level.
