1. Introduction

This book is like any other of our books: Please check very consciously whether you need the content and only read it if you know that you do. The book is an energy-based book: it opens to those who need the content and closes to those for whom the book would be an empty time-filler.

SEOS is Susanne's translation of a specific energy signature into human words. Something she has also done with the names of certain high frequency energy forms. The energy-based dimension works outside of human words and therefore also outside of human names. It doesn't need names because it recognizes and navigates via energy signatures. The human living space, on the other hand, is different and so it also needs something else. Words and names, for example.

SEOS is the human - literal translation of the energy signature of the planetary unification of all current habitats and realms on planet earth and this book is aimed at those people who know within themselves that one of their future tasks is intercultural mediation and cooperation in the preparation of a constructive coexistence of the energy-based and the human inhabitants of planet earth.

If so, you know this purely and clearly within yourself. If you do not yet know for sure, please check until you know for sure. If you do not know, please put the book aside because it will not serve you and will only steal your precious lifetime in this situation.

The conscious and active participation in SEOS requires a variety of requirements:

- The conscious and final mastery of the human material-based habitat. You have mastered all relevant tasks sustainably, so.
- Your full awareness. You have successfully walked the path of full awareness and are now stable in your own essential vibrational frequency.
- A high level of personal development in your basic being.
- Security. Complete and holistic security. In yourself and in your outside.
- Total abundance in every single area of your human life.
- Secure knowledge of the energy-based fifth and the energy-based seventh dimension.
- You have spent several successful lives in every living space on planet earth and in doing so, you have acquired the knowledge that serves you here and now for the task within the framework of SEOS.

- You have a high level of integrity that is always secure.

You bring a lot with you for the task described and the only thing that certifies you for it, is your own inner secure knowledge. You will receive the external confirmation when the content of the book opens up to you and enriches you in many ways (and visibly perceptible). If you are not authorized in said area, you will not get real access to the content. The book is an energy-based book and is subject to its circumstances.

Well, the conscious cooperation with SEOS is not an honorary "side story". Rather, it will need you in many ways and it will challenge you in many ways. Yet, it will enrich you immensely. In all areas of your life.

You have probably carried your involvement in this regard with you for a long time. At best, so far, simply as an inner hunch.

Before this one human incarnation, you made it your goal to become an active member of SEOS. This task is an extremely high task, on the human side, and so you can at best grasp now at the latest why your previous human life was such an intense and also challenging life. You have led a seemingly normal life on the outside and at the same time have been preparing for this one job at SEOS since you were born. Diverse and very intensively prepared, to be honest.

You are honored by this high level of work and even if you probably realize by now, reading these lines, that you are actually a member of SEOS and will actively work there in the future and are thinking of a secluded, simple and financially poor human life, it will happen significantly differently than your human mind is currently imagining.

- You will lead a thoroughly human life until your last breath in this one human incarnation, even if you work "full-time" far outside of human imagination.
- You will have material goods and financial strength equal to your natural size. Naturally.
- You will have a (self-sufficient) holistically rich, beautiful, essential place of residence. A place that supports your work in many ways.
- You will have enough human friendships. Relationships that fill you deeply and leave you wanting for nothing.
- Your work at SEOS promotes your knowledge and personal development.

You have decided to work at SEOS and this decision has brought you an extremely intensive lifetime so far. On the one hand, you led a completely normal human life and worked through all your human tasks that still had to be fulfilled. At the same time, you studied the material-based level and the human living space in depth and mastered it sustainably. If you also had former human lives that were not completely cleaned up and thus lastingly processed, you have also solved this task. Over the years, your own vibrational frequency has increased, your consciousness has expanded and as a result, the energy-based level has increasingly opened up to you. On the one hand, this meant that you became increasingly aware of your energy-based perception and began to actively deal with it. On the other hand, your energy-based abilities became consciously accessible again and you also consciously dealt with them. Over time, your former lives in the energy-based realms of planet earth have begun to give you access to them and specifically the knowledge contained within. A challenging story, but at the same time you also led a completely normal human life, in this phase. Meanwhile, you have gone through a highly intensive holistic cleaning process. The process was so intense and detailed that you no longer have a single scrap of negativity in your own personal energy space. Because, for your work at SEOS you need an extremely high personal holistic purity and integrity.

If you like: Please read the last few lines again very slowly and very consciously and record what great things, you have achieved in the last few years!!

You sometimes thought your life would stand still or even end. You have repeatedly faced the issue of financial poverty and social exclusion. You've felt incapable, many other times. Neglected by life, not really taking your human needs seriously. Externally parked by your own inner essential self and forced to rest breaks that you were not actively looking for. Yet, in most cases definitely did not want. Well, you have gone through your personal path of becoming fully conscious and have worked through an immense additional program at the same time. An achievement that can hardly be put into words. Very well, however, it is to be appreciated very consciously.

It may be that you are currently repeatedly looking in the direction of social exclusion and financial poverty, as you are clearly heading in a direction that seems to carry such a prognosis. And we encourage you to look again consciously in said direction, but to direct your gaze a little upwards and to grasp it by means of extended perception. Perceive, very consciously and recognize where your path is actually leading you.

From a certain (high) level of development you are subject to the energy-based circumstances and the energy-based laws and these always focus on your complete well-being and your complete holistic abundance. You can no longer concentrate on earning a certain amount of money over the next few months so that you can buy a certain car. Rather, said car appears when you actually need it. The perfect model for you and your current situation. Together with the required amount of money, of course. You don't have to (and can't) plan or organize anymore. You don't have to (and can't) work out for yourself anymore. To be honest, you're less and less able to do this.

Rather, you can (and should) consciously allow: A deeply fulfilled life. In every single area of your current now. Something that sometimes looks visibly different than what your human mind imagined.

Now it may be that while reading the introductory lines you have realized that you will actually work as an active member of SEOS and involuntarily thought of a kind of "escape from the world to other spheres". The thought is obvious but does not correspond to reality. On the contrary! For this work you have to be very stable and very clearly involved in the material based human society. Ideally in a position that does justice to your diverse potential and your natural size. A position that you cannot actively look for because it (understandably) has to cover a wide range of aspects:

- It has to fit you perfectly (with everything you are and have).

- The organization in which you work needs sufficiently sophisticated people who are able to consciously and safely stabilize at any time.
- The issue of organization is (recognizable from the outside for conscious, highly developed people) in the interface between the materially based and energy-based dimension, although it is purely materially embedded on the outside.
- The organization is free from harmful forms of energy and acts with the goal of a better, healthier and more sustainable future.
- You receive power and authority to act in this, your "new and future" position.

So please do not prepare yourself for a life away from humans, but instead prepare yourself very consciously for full immersion in human society again. A return that is optimally adapted to you, is now being prepared step by step. And this usually means that you will not work in the organization we have described right from the start but will usually work a few more rounds in different companies. Seen from the outside, a time that at best seems a bit unstable, which at the same time gives you many and varied gifts on different levels and supports you in your personal preparation time.

You don't have to do anything active for that. You will learn step by step. Yet, every single step serves you in many different ways. For your current here and now, but of course also with regard to your future task.

This book was also created in energy-based cooperation.

2. Introduction to the topic

If you are at a (high) level of personal development and then go through your own personal path of becoming aware and thus get back your own essential vibration frequency, you go through a path that seems to take away everything that is dear and valuable to you. You lose ongoing. You lose your visions, your long-term companions, your beliefs, your world view, your previous meaning of life, etc. So incredibly many things are beginning to move away from you. Yes, sometimes it slips away from you, even though you fight wildly for it. You seem to be moving out of human society, although you have never actively wanted or sought to do so. And last but not least, in the course of your holistic cleansing and clearing, you will also be detached from the global economic system.

And again; please read the introductory lines of this chapter (again) slowly and very consciously and grasp how extremely intensive your path has been so far and what great things you have achieved there. Many, very many people are unable to walk this intense and challenging path to the end. They don't have the courage and they don't have the strength. They will face the challenge again in their next life. Then, they maybe end it. Maybe not. The path to full awareness is not child's play and it cannot be glorified, embellished or even spiritualized. The path of awareness demands everything from you (and sometimes a lot more) and if you have walked it to the end, you have acquired a number of holistic skills. You are capable of many things, so.

Well, in the course of this path you were also detached from the global economic system, and this triggered a great many fears in you. You have come to terms with the fact that you will live with little money and then sometimes thought that you will no longer do paid work. However, this is not entirely true, as you clearly need a corresponding position in human society for your job at SEOS. And, in this position you will just as clearly earn money corresponding to your natural size. Free from negative impositions that are still so common in the global economic system. And, free from any dependencies that you can also often find in human society these days. You will find out personally, step by step, what this will look like in practice in your situation.

Please refrain from forming any mental images. Instead, consciously focus on your here and now and face the issues and tasks that arise in yourself and in your very practical life. You will know the rest continuously with more than enough advance notice. Pure and clear.

Well, the secure and stable holistic anchoring in human society and in the materially based human living space is one part. One that will establish itself fairly quickly now and you will know inwardly when that task is complete. If you like, put the book aside, now. You know that one of your primary future tasks will be to be an active member of SEOS. And, you know that in the near future you will be securely and sustainably anchored in your current human life. And so, consciously devote yourself to your current very practical tasks and if you are then, firmly anchored and know that you can continue, pick up the book again and consciously immerse yourself in the world of SEOS.
