1. Preface

This book is a book written by the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light. The content was created in an energy-based way and is accessible in this form to every energy-based living being. Susanne is now writing down the content in human words and by doing so, she is accompanied and supported by some members of the Executive Council of the Galactic Federation of Light.

Therefore, "we" in this book, is the entire current (March 2020) Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light.

The (writing) authors of this book are:

Susanne Edelmann, human embodiment of Lady Nayla Og-Min, member of the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light and writing author of this book.

Lady Nayla Og-Min, Ascended Master, Member of the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light, Master of Light.

Lord Ben Josef, Ascended Master, member of the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light, Master of Light.

Lord St. Germain, Ascended Master, Member of the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light, Master of Light.

Ashtar Sheran, Member of the Board of Directors of the Galactic Federation of Light, Master of Light.

May the book support you! You personally.

Warm regards

Susanne Edelmann, Lady Nayla Og-Min, Lord Ben Josef, Lord St. Germain, Ashtar Sheran

2. Introduction

Humanity is currently (March 2020) experiencing a major challenge, the so-called corona crisis. A virus that spreads rapidly, leads to all kinds of speculations and explanatory models and affects every single individual personally. A virus that triggers fear and terror, is interwoven with a multitude of unpleasant and dark forms of energy, keeps the human world in suspense and, to a certain extent, also threatens.

If a person is currently associated¹ in material-based medical reality, this virus is a terrifying and often fatal affair. However, if a person looks at this virus outside of the material-based, medical framework, possibly also from the perspective of the energy-based dimension, this viral living being is one of many. A living being that people have filled very intensely with negative energy in the last few months and thereby become increasingly entangled with all kinds of dark forms of energy. A wonderful, highly illustrative template of how reality (s) are created in the material-based dimension.

Well, humanity could get out of the current reality in a completely uncomplicated way and thus easily resolve the whole threatening situation so that people could go back to their lives unencumbered. If people were aware of their actual power, they would be able to completely dissolve the self-developed threat reality at any time. Well, the collective of humanity is not yet capable of this and so we address ourselves to those of you who have the ability to do so. To you.

In order for us to speak of the same, however, we would like to first write a few words on the subject of "reality".

3. How reality is created

People are masters in creating realities. They are just usually not yet aware of it. The creation of realities happens in the materially based living space and thus, in the current primary human life context, by means of data and facts. Honestly by means of (professional) interpretation of data and facts. In the present case of the corona virus, a (new) virus could be verified in a person's blood. There were loads of other bacteria and viruses in that blood too. However, these were either not recorded or if, interpreted as not important. The focus of perception was on the new virus. Symptoms of the person who carried this virus in their blood were associated with this one virus and thus laid the groundwork for a corresponding reality. If the persuasiveness of the person who lays the first stone of the foundation of a (new) reality is sufficiently strong, other people usually follow immediately, who verify this (new) reality using their own data and facts and thus further strengthen the foundation . From an energy-based point of view, an energy field is created that is now usually continuously strengthened and nourished with the appropriate energy. Something that makes this field grow in strength.

If people, who have the ability of expanded and thus energy-based perception, consciously immerse themselves in such a reality, they can perceive a kind of "spongy fog". Not clear, not strong, fluctuating and very often covered with all sorts of unpleasant forms of energy. If you consciously dive deeper into it, at some point you will encounter emptiness and the reality will dissolve. It is a man-made reality and therefore does not correspond to truth. If, on the other hand, you immerse yourself in a fact that corresponds to truth (for example the fact of the Galactic Federation of Light) with your expanded ability, you will involuntarily perceive the corresponding difference. Perhaps this is also covered with all sorts of unpleasant forms of energy. However, if you keep in touch and dive a little deeper, you will immediately meet truth. Purely. Clear. Strong. Not flexible and also not dimmable. It is. Truth. Energy-based, clearly perceptible for all energy-based living beings at any time. In the energy-based dimension, a living being would never have the idea of discussing truth or even verifying it. Truth is.

If now, in March 2020, a person speaks truth and say: "The corona virus is one possible flu virus of many. Illness and death are a holistic story and happen independently of a virus, in the end", he would have to verify this sentence. Using material-based, medical data and facts. Something he will not succeed within the current human-made reality. Truth is outside of realities. As a rule, truth can only be verified in an energy-based manner and thus, material-based, very often not verified.

Well, do you know this dilemma from your own experiences?

You know truth and yet you cannot prove it in a materially based manner within the current human reality?

We assume that is the case. Much more, so that you can understand and comprehend the rest of the book, it is essential that you know what we have written about in these first pages. Because, the book is not about the corona virus, but rather about the theory of light. In order to be able to grasp this, however, you not only need the conscious ability of energy-based perception, you also have to know the differences between the material-based, human dimension and the energy-based dimension. Ideally, you not only know them, but you are also able to move effortlessly in both living spaces.

It requires a high level of personal maturity in order to know truth at all times and at the same time to be able to consciously immerse yourself in any human reality and to behave adequately there.

Well, in the past few years you have often felt helpless with this topic. Yet, to be honest, you've surrendered a little in the meantime. You have given up and developed more and more the conviction in yourself that the realities created by humans are stronger than the actual truth. Perhaps you have even withdrawn a little, from human society and, to a certain extent, from life. This is another reason for this book: You and your own personal well-being.

You have very consciously chosen this one human incarnation that you are currently in. You wanted to achieve great things and very consciously use all your (huge) potential to help shape the new that is now developing more and more on planet earth. We were all happy about your decision. We were aware of how valuable you and your natural gifts and abilities, your knowledge and your integrity would be, now in this very important transition phase in which the earth is.

Yet now, you feel empty and burned out. Misunderstood and alone. Strange and a little homeless. And so we ask you to sit upright and consciously put both feet on the ground, breathe deeply and consciously a few times, close your eyes and then use your expanded perception to feel into your immediate surroundings. Be aware of what you perceive there. If you like afterwards, open your eyes, look out the window, and perceive there too, using your energy-based abilities.

All the beings that you have now been able to perceive have been with you for weeks and months. Many of them, already your whole life. You are a highly developed being. Extremely precious for this time, here on planet earth. You have had your focus so far, very much on your human life. A life that has inexplicably dissolved itself in the last few months and has sometimes made you think that it will end now. Something that would have relieved you to a certain extent, because even if you have done a great deal of good for other people in this life, it personally, has still not filled you in depth or even made you happy or feeling deeply alive.

Well, you've passed a certain turning point and even if you wanted to, you can't go back. You can already feel this yourself. And so we would like to accompany you into your very personal future. We would like to do this, on the one hand, by introducing you to the theory of light
